Not a Poisoned Chalice: Your Anti-Corruption Strategy

Dear Chief Constable,

I write to you, in your dual capacity as the relatively new Chief Constable of South Yorkshire Police, and also as the National Police Chiefs' Council lead for anti-corruption, and in response to recent communications with the South Yorkshire Police and Crime Commissioner.

With respect to your new role in South Yorkshire Police, please allow me to briefly make two observations and comments. Firstly, thank you for extending a particularly warm and friendly greeting to me, when I happened to be inside the front HQ foyer last month. Irrespective of whether you appreciated who I was or not, your friendly greeting was noticed and gratefully received. Secondly, earlier in July, the BBC quoted you as saying this: "I do not think it is a poisoned chalice". To my mind, that very much depends on your approach to the task at hand, and time alone will tell. A golden opportunity to change the face of policing for the better, stands before you. Doubtless you will hope to enjoy a better fate than that of your predecessor David Crompton and, with all due respect, that may very much depend on how you view this supportive letter.

Following that brief introduction, the rest of my letter is primarily concerned with ethics and policing standards, and your wider portfolio regarding anti-corruption. In particular, I wish to make reference to the HMIC report entitled, "PEEL: Police Legitimacy 2016", and an associated BBC article headlined: "Hundreds of police accused of sexual exploitation", dated 08/12/16. Its link follows: <http://www.bbc.com/news/uk-38240524>.

The above article quotes you as saying this: "It is the most serious form of corruption, and it can never be justified or condoned." I can't help but think that for such rhetoric to have any real meaning and substance, ". . .and let the punishment deter the crime", or words to that effect, ought to have been added for better effect. In ethics and modern day law-enforcement practice, this is a principle which means that the severity of penalty for a misdeed or wrongdoing should be reasonable and proportionate to the severity of the infraction. Corruption, in all its evil manifestations, needs to be rooted out. Police officers found guilty of it must be punished severely. Nobody should be above "The Law" and there must be "no sacred cows". Elementary stuff, I know, but the rest of my letter will attempt to explain not just why that must be so, but also the kind of response required, if public trust and confidence in the police is to be restored. In that context, JAH's letter, sent previously to the Commissioner, takes centre stage.

Dated 22nd August 2016, Dr. Billings promised to reply to JAH about it, although that has yet to happen. Please see Appendix A. It is quite possible, that you will have already been sighted on this letter. That will be the case, if the Commissioner has discussed its contents and its underlying message with you. No matter, I urge you to pause for thought, and read or re-read and digest it fully. Please do that before you venture any further with my letter. JAH's message is every bit as important for you now, as it was and still is for the Commissioner.

* * * * *

Now that you have hopefully read JAH's letter and returned to this one, let me first of all make my own declaration. I for one, agree with JAH's stark message for the South Yorkshire Police leadership team. For my part, my only extra desire is to share some additional analysis with you about sexual exploitation and associated corruption issues of relevance to your portfolio. To that end, a total of seven supportive and illustrative case study examples are purposefully provided. They come from a vantage point of being a former Principal Intelligence Analyst, and a whistleblower, and from someone who is known to certain members of your Senior Command Team.

Example 1: What should happen when South Yorkshire Police get it badly wrong?

Sheffield man jailed for sexual offence against 14-year-old girl

WORDING TAKEN FROM SYP WEBSITE

Video - His Wrongful Conviction
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c24Au0MFxtE>

A man who ran a dessert shop in Darnall has been jailed for three years for pressuring a 14-year-old girl to perform a sex act on him.

Rassam Ali, 24, of Staniforth Road, Sheffield, was jailed on Friday 13 March after being found guilty of sexual activity with a child at Sheffield Crown Court earlier this month.

Ali ran Rassam's Dessert Bar on Staniforth Road when his victim and her friend began going to the shop after school in September 2013. They started going to the shop regularly and in November, Ali asked the victim to come back when the shop was closed.

The victim eventually agreed and went to the shop one evening and Ali pressured her to perform a sex act on him.

Ali was arrested in January 2014 after his victim disclosed what had happened to a learning mentor at school.

Investigating Officer Detective Constable Tracey Davies said: "Ali took advantage of a young girl who was vulnerable due to her age. She found the courage to come forward and speak to someone she trusted about what had happened and we were able to bring him to justice.

He is now rightly behind bars for his actions. I hope the victim can now try to put this horrendous event behind her and, with support, move forward with her life."

WRONGFUL CONVICTION
RASSAM ALI, 24

The conviction of Rassam Ali was wrong. It has been over-turned upon appeal in Sheffield Crown Court, but not before he had spent eighteen months in prison. Rassam's defence team believed that police failed to look into evidence that would have cleared him. Police admitted in court that they had not examined CCTV evidence from his dessert bar where he was falsely accused of forcing a 14 year old girl to have sex with him. That short YouTube video above should be watched.

Assuming for one moment that this error made by the investigating officer, was not spawned from deliberately corrupt practice, then it is a dreadful blunder which demands a swift and incisive remedy to the unfortunate Asian victim. Also, as far as the false accuser is concerned, please keep the expression: "punishment should deter the crime" at the forefront of your mind. Under God's Perfect Law, which back-sliding Britain's fake queen swore to maintain under her Coronation Oath, any false accuser must be subjected to the equivalent punishment they maliciously sought to inflict.

Deuteronomy 15-21 See also Matthew 18:15-20

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days;

18 And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

20 And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Example 2: COPS and ROTHERS – Sentence Length by Sexual Predator Type

DC Clifford Earl – 1year PC Evans - 4 years PC Steven Walters - 4 years PC Stephen Mitchell - 7.5 yrs

ROTHERHAM 6 – Male average 25 years

ROTHERHAM 8 – Male average 12 years

Example 2 overleaf, shows that for similar sexual offences, four publicly entrusted police officers get average jail sentences of four years each for their sexual predatory habits. Meanwhile, convicted sexual predators from Rotherham, who are mainly of Asian origin, are given average sentences of 25 years and 12 years, respectively. It is also important to note that it is only thanks to the efforts of South Yorkshire Police, that the latter two groups from Rotherham, have seemingly been allowed to operate with impunity within your new force area, for a decade and more. As yet, not a single police officer has been appropriately punished for such blatant corrupt practice. That runs contrary to God's Law and urgently needs to be addressed as an anti-corruption priority.

Example 3: The Derision of Our Prison

Psalm 2:4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: The Lord shall have them in derision.

Setting aside the obvious disparities in the length of sentences incurred within these groups, huge incarceration costs to the tax-paying public accrue. In this year's Rotherham 6 trial, sentencing for six individuals totalled 103 years, equating to combined projected incarceration costs of nearly £3.9M.

Meanwhile, if your local hero and CSE survivor Lucy Smith, alias Emma Jackson, is to be believed, at least 55 individuals raped her before she had reached the age of consent. If these alleged rapists had at some stage been arrested, charged and tried, as they arguably could have been; and if each perpetrator similarly faced the same sentences akin to those recently awarded to “The Rotherham 8”; then the accrued extrapolated incarceration costs resulting from the convictions of all 55 of the rape allegations of Lucy Smith, would exceed £25M.

Mindful that over a period of sixteen years, conservative estimates of CSE victims in Rotherham number of the order of 1400, and given the uncomfortable home truth that South Yorkshire Police have so far prosecuted the cases for only a handful out of 1,400 victims, then extrapolated incarceration costs could be as high as £1.4Billion for the Rotherham CSE scandal alone. It is a sobering thought that up to present, less the one percent of the alleged victims in Rotherham may have had their cases heard. The scale of SYP mismanagement and inaction over the last decade, is far more damaging to Rotherham and harmful to a society's well-being, than the vile and putrid actions of the grooming gangs themselves. Corrupt officers must face punishment.

The officers who are corrupt, being in a position of trust and supposed to set a good example to the public, should, because of that abuse of trust, be given a much harsher sentence than members of the public who commit crimes. So they should have received harsher sentences than the Asians, as an example and deterrent to other police officers and people in positions of responsibility and trust.

Don't shoot the messenger! The Commissioner did after all invite me to spot the signs in SHEFFIELD and say something!

Example 4: Close Encounters of a Luciferian Kind

An odd feature of the Lucy Rebecca Smith's recent "Rotherham 8" case is the degree to which Lucy, masquerading as Emma Jackson, has been courted so much by the establishment. This has occurred about the time that the exposures by Andrew Norfolk and Professor Alexis Jay came to light. That this has happened BEFORE, and NOT AFTER the completion of the recent "Rotherham 8" trial and verdicts, raises some serious and disturbing ethical questions internally for your force, the police service in general, and the wider judiciary.

A photograph of Emma Jackson speaking at a podium during a conference. The podium has a microphone. Behind her is a banner for 'NAHT FOR LEADERS, FOR LEARNERS Education conference 2015'. The audience is visible in the foreground.	Emma Jackson, Rotherham survivor - SEXUAL EXPLOITATION SURVIVOR Emma is 25 years old from Sheffield. At the age of 13 Emma was groomed and sexually exploited by a gang of men. To escape sexual exploitation Emma and her family moved out of the country when she was 15, returning to England with her family at 17, when she began to rebuild her life. By the age of 21 Emma had a published book on her experiences and was working with a project in Rotherham on combating child sexual exploitation. In the past three years Emma has worked around the UK with organisations raising awareness on the issue. As well as doing work with different charities Emma has also done media work appearing on Sky News, BBC News, ITV News, Panorama, Britain's Sex Gangs on Channel 4 and The Big Question. Emma now works as a trainer and consultant around the UK and was a consultant for the Whitney story line on Eastenders.

7 Habits of Highly Defective Policing

(1) As early as 2003, Police Officers in South Yorkshire Police and Child Protection Agencies, in neglecting their duty of care to the child Lucy Smith, showed unfathomable wilful blindness to her desperate plight. The police even lost, deliberately or otherwise, Lucy's all important supposed DNA stained clothing, following alleged rapes by at least one, if not more, of her alleged predators.

SEE NO EVIL,
HEAR NO EVIL,
SPEAK NO EVIL,
DO NO EVIL

(2) Disturbingly, well before the trial in Sheffield Crown Court, Lucy Smith became a kiss-and-tell trend-setter, authoring two books about her child sexual exploitation ordeal. Her books are entitled “Exploited” and “The End of My World” respectively. Several survivors have written similarly.

(3) Prior to undergoing any proper judicial process, our national and local politicians, together with several police forces, jumped on the band-wagon and touted Lucy around the length and breadth of the country as a key-note speaker, super-hero and moral philosopher, all rolled into one. Long before allegations came to court, a loose-lipped and lucid Lucy was thrust onto centre stage at various national and local child protection promotional events. She would offer advice to would be vulnerable girls of her ilk. Agents of the law, who had themselves, by their own wilful blindness, manifestly created the industrial-scale child-sex-grooming crisis in the first place, lapped it up.

(4) Absent from Lucy's public profile, is deeply disturbing intelligence which suggests that Lucy's current and long-time partner, and dad of her child, is Vijay Crow. Vijay Crow is allegedly known as one of the most violent and organised criminals in Rotherham, whose very own dad - Saleem Azam – allegedly just so happens to be the top organised Mafia-type criminal in Rotherham. Intelligence suggests that Saleem Azam was powerful enough to “buy off” those in authority, in return for his son's immunity from prosecution for a vicious baseball bat murder.

(5) Lucy even appeared before Vaz the Inquisitor, that right dishonourable arch villain and seedy sodomite, and thoroughly discredited Chair of the Home Affairs Select Committee. Only in a lunatic asylum would such a criminal sleaze-bag be forced to resign in disgrace from one senior parliamentary post, only to be almost immediately placed within an equivalently important senior parliamentary position – one that scrutinises judicial processes, of all things.

(6) Notwithstanding the force's 'Public Propaganda Protection Unit' in action, mixed in with Whacko Jacko's Thriller' Moon Walk, public confidence in South South Yorkshire Police plummets on a downward spiral. As the new chief on the block, there are some searching questions you should ask. Here's two for starters. They are offered up for you to ask of your staff.

Example 5: No Bad Deed Goes Unrewarded, No Good Deed Goes Unpunished

Rent Boy Scandal MP Keith Vaz Has Resigned

Example 7: The Loath of Her Oath (A fraudulent queen)

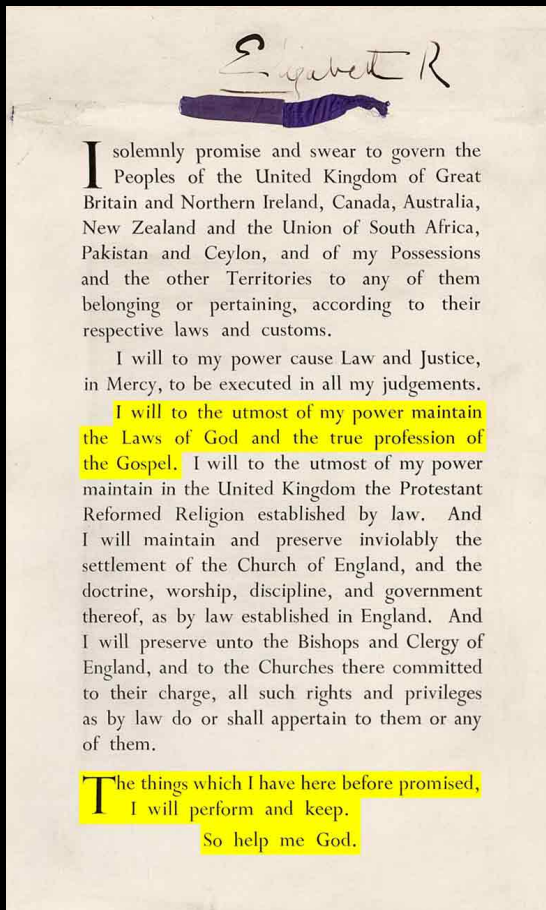

Please stop and think very seriously about this next example, again with JAH's letter very much kept in the forefront of your mind. Betty's Coronation Oath – the one to which she swore on The Holy Bible, says this.

“I will to the utmost of my power maintain the Laws of God and the true profession of the gospel.”

“These things which I have here before promised,
I will perform and keep, so help me God.”

Then honestly ask yourself the following question, while also keeping in mind, our little ethical principle of let the punishment deter the crime:

*To what extent do you think Elizabeth has maintained
The Laws of God and the true profession of the Gospel?*

Concluding Remarks

South Yorkshire Police have a duty of care to protect the public, and doubtless protecting vulnerable children will be a personal priority for you. It can be seen below that your force has gone to some length to put out a short and catchy slogan to the general public, seemingly in order to help the police prevent and detect serious crime and better protect vulnerable children.

In a nutshell, my message to you is this: I have spotted the signs, particularly signs for Sheffield, and I do feel compelled to say something. This is commensurate with the imperative message from the Commissioner's war cry as above. In terms of our children, and those predators that threaten to abuse them, words of wisdom, taken from the Gospel of Matthew, are most apt for the occasion.

Matthew 18:6

But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and [that] he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

There is an invitation for you now to read my twelve point plan, as presented to Alan Billings, during our meeting together on 26th October 2016. Please see Appendix B.

Finally, so that you may hopefully come to understand the huge importance of the city of Sheffield, in these momentous end-times, I enclose for you a Joseph Booklet. It provides great insight into a wonderfully powerful child-trafficking story of a teenage-boy who survived a terrible ordeal. As a survivor from a few thousands of years ago, Joseph had an earth-shattering dream, which is prophetically associated with SHEFFIELD. A degree of physical abuse and wrongful imprisonment followed from Joseph's dream. The evil came from Joseph's older brothers, who sold their younger brother into slavery to strangers. Joseph was then trafficked away to a foreign land, far from Home.

Recommendation

It is recommended that you consult with the Police and Crime Commissioner, giving due consideration to the following: this letter; my 12-point plan, otherwise termed an anti-corruption strategy for South Yorkshire Police; and JAH's advice.

Yours sincerely,

A. Farrell

APPENDIX A – REPLICATION OF JAH's LETTER

In the Name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful

22/August/2016

Contact email: JAH@JAHTruth.net

Dear Mr. Billings,

Peace be upon you and within you.

We hope this finds you well, in good spirit and having a good day.

We are writing to you to advise you, firstly about how to stop the Child Sexual Exploitation/Abuse, OVERNIGHT, in the ONLY Way it can be done, by returning to The Law (God's Law), and publicly executing those found guilty of these abominable crimes.

There is absolutely NO other way of stopping it. NONE! Jailing perpetrators HAS NOT and WILL NOT stop it, and only adds insult to injury, using and wasting the victims' tax-money to keep these sick animals in prison, only to eventually be released to do it again and laugh at, and, in some cases, goad their victims. The victims must be allowed, along with their families and all affected, to participate in their public and televised execution. That then releases the anger that they feel, that will poison them from within, for the rest of their lives, unless purged by taking part in the execution of those who harmed and terrorised them, and kept them in a constant state of fear.

That then sends a stark message to ALL those, including the paedophile politicians, who would harm little girls (and boys), what will happen to them if they do so, as the ultimate deterrent. They will then, unless caught first, flee back to their own countries, and deter others from coming.

Before you decide that you know better than God, and that this is not the right approach, and decide to disagree with The Law and The Sentence of The Law, let me warn you, that so doing puts anyone who does it also under the death-penalty. Anyone who disagrees with The Law and refuses to carry-out The Sentence of The Law is, under The Law, to also be executed.

Deuteronomy 12:8 Ye shall not do after all [the things] that we do here this day, every man whatsoever [is] right in his own eyes.

Deuteronomy 17:9 And thou shalt come unto the priests (ME) the Levites, and unto the judge (ME) that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they (I) shall show thee The Sentence of Judgment:

17:10 And thou shalt do according to The Sentence, which they of that place which the "I AM" shall choose shall show thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

17:11 According to The Sentence of The Law which they (I) shall teach thee, and according to the Judgment which they (I) shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline to do The Sentence which they (I) shall show thee, and turn not away from it [to] the right hand, nor [to] the left.

17:12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest (ME) that standeth to minister there before the "I AM" thy God, or unto the judge (ME), even that man shall die: and [thus] thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

17:13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously (in thinking they are a law unto themselves).

Now that We have established what the ONLY solution is, the question is: how do We go about implementing it?

Hopefully you are not going to quote that old false canard about casting the first stone, because that never happened, and was added 300 years after the Gospel of John was compiled, and has been used ever since to enable people to get away with all the evil they commit.

In any case, We personally are willing to cast that first stone, to start the cleansing and healing process. Or the other false canard, that Jesus abolished The Law, as is taught by false Christianity and its so-called false priests, in direct contravention of what Jesus actually said, and Christ's condemnation of those who falsely so teach.

Matthew 5:17 Think not that I am come to destroy The Law, or the Prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill (Gk. pleroo – to fully preach).

5:18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no way pass from The Law, till all be fulfilled.

5:19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least COMMANDments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the Kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach [them], the same shall be called great in the Kingdom of heaven.

5:20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall EXCEED [the righteousness] of the lawyers and politicians, ye shall in no case enter into the Kingdom of heaven.

So, my question to you is this: are you going to repent and have the faith and courage to help reinstate The Law, and end the suffering of these poor little girls and young women, or not?

We are sure that the vast majority of decent English people will agree with this course of action, along with the majority of the decent people who call themselves Muslims, who should also be invited to take part, to show their disgust at these criminals who are getting them a bad name, and causing racial tension.

My second subject is Hillsborough and David Crompton, who must be charged with “attempting to pervert the course of justice”, be sacked and lose his pension, along with every other officer who has taken part in the cover-up of what REALLY happened at Hillsborough on 15/4/1989, including former ACC Walter W. Jackson, who must be FIRST on the list.

There is no other way for SYP and YOU to gain the trust of the people of South Yorkshire, than to start prosecuting and imprisoning those officers involved in the cover-ups; and executing the rapists.

We are willing to meet with you to discuss these things, and advise you how to go about them, and actually take the lead in it, with your assistance.

Failure to return to The Law means that EVERYONE who refuses to will burn:-

Malachi 4:1 For, behold, the Day cometh, that shall burn like an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the "I AM" Lord of hosts, that it shall leave of them neither root nor branch (nothing).

4:2 But unto you that fear My name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

4:3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in The Day that I shall do [this], saith the "I AM" Lord of hosts.

4:4 Remember ye and return to The Law of Moses My servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, [with] the Statutes and Judgments.

4:5 Behold, I will send you Eli-JAH the Prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful Day of the "I AM" (Sura 43:61):

4:6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse (see verse 1).

We await your hopefully positive response.

Yours truly,

Christ – King of England .

MEETING WITH TONY FARRELL - 26TH OCTOBER 2016

Dear Dr. Billings,

I hope this finds you well, in good spirit, and having a good day.

Thank you for the meeting on 26th October 2016 and the attention you gave to the points raised. Further to the meeting itself, I have now had an opportunity to update JAH about our deliberations over all twelve of my recommendations, compiled for you in my submission bundle. Please therefore find attached with this letter, the following items for your information.

1. An amended list of twelve recommendations, in accordance with the comments you specifically made regarding three of them, in the meeting itself.
2. A copy of a 7/7 Ripple Effect 2 DVD made by Muad'Dib / JAH which we highly recommend watching.

Alternatively, or in addition to, the 7/7 Ripple Effect 2 film can be watched via the link below:

<http://jforjustice.net/>

3. A copy of a 9/11 Ripple Effect DVD given this important subject was also briefly mentioned in our discussions with David Pidcock.

Alternatively, or in addition to, a YouTube version of the 9/11 Ripple Effect film can be watched via the link overleaf:

9/11 Ripple Effect Film

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Y9o7n2nugmc>

Last but by no means least, JAH will arrange for a Printed Book of The Way home or face The Fire to be sent to You separately, via your address.

Alternatively, and in addition to this, The Book, otherwise known as The White Stone can be downloaded in PDF format, via the link below.

The White Stone

Revelation 2:17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a NEW name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth [it].

<http://thewayhomeorfacethefire.net/>

We trust that the historical problem of our correspondence going astray, has now been addressed, and so for reassurance purposes, I would therefore very much appreciate a brief personal acknowledgement from you regarding the receipt of this email / letter, over and above the other agreed actions at the meeting.

JAH and I would like, given that you have not been receiving emails and letters We have sent to you, if you would please give us/Him your private email address, so that your office staff won't stop you receiving our/His information. JAH has also suggested that He send you a hard-copy of His Book to your home address for the same reason, if you would be so kind as to privately send Him your address.

I also look forward to receiving the notes of the meeting as promised, and JAH looks forward to receiving a response from you too, over His letter offering you His help in transforming South Yorkshire Police into a force for good.

Yours sincerely,

A. Farrell

MEETING BETWEEN ALAN BILLINGS AND TONY FARRELL

APPENDIX I – LIST OR RECOMMENDATIONS

A TWELVE POINT PLAN FOR SOUTH YORKSHIRE POLICE
A.	1.	The Police and Crime Commissioner read and digest The White Stone of Revelation 2:17
	2.	The Police and Crime Commissioner note the contents of JAH's letter and formally respond to JAH in writing regarding JAH's free offer of assistance to solve the Rotherham and Hillsborough issues once and for all.
B.	3.	The Police and Crime Commissioner note the contents of the letter from the Leader of The Islamic Party of Britain.
C.	4.	The Police and Crime Commissioner reverse the erroneous decision of Sally Parkin regarding the complaint about Meredydd Hughes.
D.	5.	The Police and Crime Commissioner notify the Interim Chief Constable, Stephen Watson, about the weight of evidence supporting my call for the immediate arrest of Meredydd Hughes, for committing perjury on 9th September 2014, and the other evidence I have supplied with respect to other allegations of Meredydd Hughes' serious and organised criminality.
E	6.	The Police and Crime Commissioner note the contents of Jason Holmes' Statement of Truth with respect to the criminal conduct of Meredydd Hughes.
F.	7.	The Police and Crime Commissioner notify the Interim Chief Constable, Stephen Watson, about the existence of evidence against David Crompton, for perverting the course of justice over Hillsborough, and other serious and organised criminality, some of which is of a treasonous nature, as starkly outlined in my statement of truth.
	8.	The Police and Crime Commissioner, along with the interim Chief Constable, Stephen Watson, consider the most appropriate response, in the light of the damning evidence relating to Walter Jackson, the former A.C.C. at the time of Hillsborough, with specific reference to our well-documented suspicions of him perverting the course of justice, over his conduct before, during, and after the disaster.
G.	9.	The Police and Crime Commissioner invite JAH and Tony Farrell to address the Independent Ethics Panel on 29 th November 2016.
H.	10.	The Police and Crime Commissioner take note of the intelligence report submitted on Rotherham during the meeting, and discuss the sensitive subject with his interim Chief Constable with immediate effect.
I.	11.	The Police and Crime Commissioner request that Nigel Hiller formally issue a public apology on behalf of the force endorsed by all officers of ACPO rank, for wrongfully and unjustly sacking the Principal Intelligence Analyst on 2 nd September 2010 for speaking truth to power regarding the bogus terror threat construct and consider re-instating Tony Farrell as their Principal Intelligence Analyst with immediate effect.
ALPHA AND OMEGA	12.	The Police and Crime Commissioner apologise on behalf of the force for the unjust actions taken against JAH / Christ in His Second Coming in the mid to late 80's.
