Hiya again Richard, You asked this:

"Oh by the way where are the court papers, the judgement, the sheriff's order, why are these missing they would have been issued to her."

My response is this: I refer you back to Seven's experience regarding Daniel 5 and the Writing on the Wall, before Lawrence-Collins back in 2008. I seemed to get confirmation of her sign, when I met up with Seven outside the Royal Courts of Injustice on 7th July 2013 in the presence of JAH. It is not for me to interpret the sign handed down to me that day, but I sensed it had some meaning or another. I think the Lawrence Antony Collins, Baron Collins of Mapesbury is living in Hong Kong now, otherwise, I'd like to ask him about the judgement. We hang the petty thieves and appoint the great ones to public office. That's me done with emails for tonight. Peace be with you and good night.
