Dear David, Mr. Holt and Nigel

I hope this finds you well, in good spirit and having a good day.

I thought this radio broadcast called "Analysis" on BBC Radio 4 would be beneficial to you as leaders to listen to and perhaps share among your Senior Command Team, if you are not aware of its existence. It talks about creating a just culture. It mentions Rotherham, but its focus extends to several large corporations. I would highly recommend listening to it.

It was forwarded to me today by an educated friend who takes a lot of interest in South Yorkshire Police.

It came in response to me reflecting upon my own short time working directly under Bob Purdy. Bob, as you know is in the witness box today in Warrington. I am reading the live text while he is being questioned. I liked Bob. He once called me the nutty professor.

I hope you listen to the BBC Broadcast which is only 30 minutes long but I suggest well worth the time, and I hope it somehow helps.

Regards

Tony Farrell
