Dear David,

Good morning. I hope this finds you well, well-rested and having a good day.

At the end of last week's SYPC candidate debate, Alan Billings in his final message quoted from the prophet Jeremiah. He quoted this.

Jeremiah 29:7 English Standard Version (ESV)

7 But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

I did not have any problem with this, except I would point out that the Authorised King James Version contains the word "peace" instead of "welfare". And I would add this. Note well that in my DVD film given specially to you for a preview, two weeks ago, how it was stated that it was the prophet Jeremiah who brought the ARK OF THE COVENANT and THE STONE OF DESTINY to the Hill of Tara in County Meath, Ireland in 583BC. The film went on to explain the significance of this with respect to JAH, the Second Coming of Christ, whom you continue to shun.

Had I been on the platform with the other candidates, as originally planned, had I not been thwarted by the quirky electoral roll registration rules, in my summary, I would quoted from one of the other major prophets, namely Isaiah.

I would have said this.

Isaiah 5:20 King James Version (KJV)

20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

As you start another week at the office, think well on both scriptural passages, but especially the latter.

Regards
