Tony,

I think the line you failed to underline is the bit where it is clear that this is a joke and yes, I do want you to remove my image and this is why...

Exposing Ms Charles Seven

In 2003, a self-proclaimed creative genius arrived for a Studio Open day in Feltham, Middlesex, to tour the facilities and get the opportunity to pitch her Television Programme ideas to Television Industry Provisionals. I hosted the event. The person concerned called herself 'Ms Charles Seven' and she got short shrift.

Her ideas were pants, she had not a clue about TV formats and had some embarrassingly simplistic idea that because she talked about a concept it was a TV format. The event was set up to show off the Broadcast playout centre at Feltham and to bring some industry wannabees together with the Industry types.

I left the industry in 2004 and just recently learned the full extent of what this young lady built up as a story and worse still has made money out. It is truly a bizarre:

1. The 7/7 bombings were an attempt to stop her from pursuing her claim for rightful TV revenues;
2. Charlie Hebdo murders are linked to 7/7 to send her a warning 'Hebdo' apparently means 'Seven';
3. Dame Helen Alexander stole her TV concepts and was awarded her 'dame hood' as a reward;
4. NTL and my company were sold off to Virgin to cover our tracks;
5. Seven is the creator of 'Strictly Come Dancing' and 'Dancing on Ice';
6. She claims to have won a High Court Case against me and that I should be in prison;
7. She claims that the high court judge who tried her case was murdered aged 54 in 2006;
8. She claims that an episode of 'Hustle' 2004-2012 was written to scare her because the plot resembled exactly what happened to her when she visited the open day.
9. She claims that she visited an empty building at Feltham where her TV Concepts were lifted.
10. She claims she was bugged and followed, had surveillance vans around her house all night and took photographs of both.

She teamed up with you to write a 250 page report and has toured Web site that investigate conspiracy theories. She has produced films on the Web about her unjust treatment and told anyone that would listen that I am a murder and masterminded terror attacks. For 12 years, I was blissfully unaware because I work in mainstream media and none of this has had any currency - . I stumbled across a story whilst casually checking Google Hits and now I am mad. Mad because a couple of hundred people actually believe that I could do such a thing and believe it without basically checking the story, which falls apart because:

1. The Case Ms Seven bought wasn't lost - it was struck out, She lost her appeal, I did not even have to return from the US to defend myself so preposterous were her suggestions;
2. Charles Seven's name is not Charles Seven - Seven gate is made up to create links to 7/7 and anything with 7 in it;

3. The Dame Helen Alexander, Seven claims to have stolen her TV concepts was not at the meeting – it was a Helen Alexander from Scottish TV, not Dame Helen Alexander of the Ports Authority;

4. Strictly come dancing came out of 'Come dancing' a show created before Ms Charles had left school. Strictly comes under the TV Format of 'Talent Show'. Ms Charles therefore is claiming that she created the Talent Show. TV Formats are defined and protected by The Format Recognition and Protection Association (FRAPA) a television industry trade association that helps protect the intellectual property of television formats. FRAPA co-sponsors the C21 Media International Format Awards. Miss Seven who came with Legal Representation is not known by them.

5. The High Court Judge that turned down her appeal tragically died aged 56 of a stroke and then a heart attack but Ms Seven would not want the truth to get in the way of a conspiracy even at the risk of upsetting the late Judges family – she tells everyone he was murdered aged 54;

6. There were at least 200 staff in the building that day – it's a major satellite and Cable TV play out station;

7. NTL merged with Telewest and then was bought by Virgin. They do not make TV programmes they broadcast them. Clarion TV (My company was not part of NTL, it didn't own TV formats it was somewhere you outsource Programmes and animations to. I sold it to Green Gecko, not Virgin Media.

8. I have met Charles Seven just once in my life. I have never been to court concerning her and I have never been arrested.

I have spoken to a number of Conspiracy Site Owners, who have already deduced that Charles Seven is not some wronged warrior for truth. She relies on the fact that people want to believe her. Her over inflated sense of her own talent is bewildering and she tells a story so bizarre that sympathetic people who may have been genuinely wronged give her the benefit of the doubt. She needs to release her evidence without redacting the bits she does not want us to read and those that she tells should do a cursory check of what they are hearing. I strongly suspect that Ms Seven has a history of mental illness that she does not share which is why I believe there is little point seeking legal redress. She claims to have her bank account frozen by me, whilst holding out a begging bowl to the conspiracy theory community. Her funds aren't frozen she is broke. The thing with Seven gate and conspiracy theory generally is that if you are debunked you simply claim the debunker is part of the plot. You can claim someone you met once is satanic and killed 57 people because your audience may not be aware of who I am. Any holes in your theory are put down to psychological tactics used by the other side. If you lose just blame corrupt officials and claim victory.

It boils down to this - did I, 7 TV companies, Richard Branson, The queen, Dame Helen Alexander, 4 legal firms, the Courts Services and 200 staff in the NTL building murder 57 people to stop Charles Seven earning royalties for Strictly Come dancing? I don't know you Tony, you were apparently an analyst and yet you appear to have not done the most basic due diligence., which is really sad? I think you know Seven is a fraud but your pride won't have you admit it. If you can stretch a Gladiator joke as far as you have I hate to think what happens if you come across a real conspiracy - or does the truth not matter a jot so long as you have a good story to tell. You claim to have been wronged but you are more than happy to lie about me, how does that work?

Take down my images - it's pathetic.

Oh and Tony if Seven won her case - she is entitled to take her judgement and enforce it through the High Court Sheriff. Where is her order? Oh yes that's right the Summary order was er...stolen? If you had any assets I would sue you, if it wasn't so spectacularly dumb I would really, really go to town on this but having spoken to Messrs Windows and co. I understand how discredited the two of you are, the best thing I can do is laugh, so if you get a chance listen tgo a show that gets 250,000 hits and is a top two hundred podcast from an industry lightweight (me) taking the michael out of the industry heavyweight - Ms Seven. In life we get what we deserve Tony.....
