I think you should heed your own words. God is the judge and when it comes to the lies told about me and the others I would not want to be in your shoes. There is not one scintilla of truth in anything Seven says. It is that simple.

My conscious is absolutely clear Tony. I will submit to a lie detector, swear an affidavit and before my God. The issue is yours. Your pride simply will not allow you to let it go. You consider that a story so monstrous must be founded on truth in part. Well that is almost criminally naive and disrespectful to the 7/7 and Charlie Hebdo victims.

The family of the judge, the wrong Helen Alexander, the bailiff's collecting Seven's debts, Susannah Hills who is described as my PA but was in fact at the event in the same capacity as Seven. It's a lie that the building was empty when there was over 200 people in the room. It's disrespectful to the actual originators of the dance talent show Seven claims.

Yes, I have to turn the other cheek but do not quote scripture at me Tony as a weapon, I know the word of God and my obligations. I certainly would not risk my soul for a Tv format and then kill and terrorise for it. Our dialogue Tony is not for me, it is for you. The public, media, and all "stakeholders" in Sevensgate decided Seven was lying a long time before I got on the trail of this. Indeed your report died in 2013. Less than 10,000 people have viewed Sevensgate material. Between procast feeds , iTunes and site hits, I reach twice that number each week.

Who needs murder when ridicule is such an effective "tool"?

We are the same age Tony so your life insights are no more mature than my own. What I have is absolute certainty of complete innocence – you have a conspiracy theory and very little grace to say you apologise for what must be obvious is a glaring error of judgement. We both know you are not a prophet but you through away a responsible job for what?

God would honour you if you spoke truth, but so many years on?
