Dear Richard,

Thank you for your concern about me being a tragic figure. I get called a lot of things these days, but that is a new one for me.

If that's what I am to you, then all I can say is that I am at perfect peace with myself. While I have no real need for you to be so concerned with my welfare, that's a matter between me and Father, your interest in such a "tragic figure" as me, is nevertheless flattering.

Thank-you.

Regards

Tony
