

RESPONDING TO THE LIES OF RICHARD J HANNAH

"No known case!"; "She conned you!"

Subject: Re: Just so you know
From: tony@jahtruth.net
Date: Tue, April 7, 2015 11:28 pm
To: "Richard Hannah" <richard.hannah@mail.com>
Hiya Again Richard,

The reason why I became involved with Ms. Seven's case initially was because of a sixth sense supernatural-like sign in the Royal Courts of Injustice concerning Belshazzar's feast in Daniel 5. That was a deeply profound experience.

The historical event in the sixth century BC to which Daniel 5 refers started off as bit of a wheeze in the palace, but ended rather badly for the king and his servants.

Mark and his buddies saying I am crackers is old news to me. He has been saying that for eighteen months, but thanks for the reminder. He makes me chuckle.

I rather suspect that if Seven were reading your comment, which she isn't, she would probably say that it is not over until Valkrie's fat lady sings.

Thanks for the Captain Ahab reference. Personally, I do not see myself as hunting for Moby Dick, but searching for the Holy Grail, with the Sword of Truth.

<http://jahtruth.net/noti.htm>

The only reason why the world did not ignore Rosa Parks was because she refused to give up her seat because someone wrongfully wanted to take it away from her. I can see similarities and only time alone will tell.

Surely you must admit, she has got some bottle?

Tony