Dear Richard,

Good morning and good wishes.

It is another glorious morning over here.

Thank you for your email again.

You are correct – God does not need me and any Holy Scripture I quote, is equally applicable to me as it is to Seven, David Crompton, Lawrence-Collins or even of course, to you yourself. And yes, if I am personally wronging you in any way, I have every reason to fear the Lord. The lessons here are for me, every bit as much as they are for you. There is absolutely no assumption on my part, that I am saved. I don't get to mark my own scorecard and narrow is the Way. But I do at least fear the Lord and I fear for the terrible consequences of not being saved. That fear is greatly heightened, as time is running out for all of us, given Christ is already here now in His Second Coming, in exact fulfilment of prophecy.

Just in case you have not yet realised who I am talking about here, when I refer to JAH, I am talking about Muad'Dib. Muad'Dib means teacher of righteousness.

Muad'Dib is also the film-maker of 7-7 Ripple Effect II. It's the film that got me chucked out the police. It's the best film I have watched on the subject by a long stretch. If you have never seen it, I encourage you to watch it.

JAH / Muad'Dib is also the author of the most valuable intellectual property on the planet. It comes in the form a Book referred to in Revelation 2:17. "And he had a new name written that no man knew but himself" (Rev./Apoc.19:12). "No man knoweth (his new name) saving he that receiveth [it - the white stone - Book] (Rev.2:17) (in which it is written). That white stone/Book is The Way home of face The Fire and only the 144,000 (Rev 14:3) who hear and recognise his voice, accept his new name and identity and upon whom he writes his NEW name personally and whom he then teaches to overcome will survive, whilst the rest of mankind will be EXECUTED.

With all due respect to you, compared with the value of anything you, or I or Seven have ever handled, the worth of this Book, is infinitely greater. I said it before, and I will say it again to you one last time, this is not a joke. I am genuinely trying to help you. I don't hate you, even if Seven is more or less correct about you. Logic tells me though, that in the case of Ms. Seven versus Gossage and Nine Others, both sides can't be telling the truth. Either Seven is lying about you, or you are lying about Seven, or perhaps worse still, you are both lying about each other, to varying degrees.

The fact that the courts have expunged Seven's case from the records, is yet a further indicator to me pointing towards a police-state cover-up. That the state does such things makes not one iota of difference to the truth about her case, whatever that may be.

Being a trained analyst, I just happen to believe this to be a long con, and has probably gone on a lot longer than any of you bargained for, when it started off as quite a small scam on 11th November 2003. It is my genuinely held belief that you never anticipated it to escalate like this.

Our courts are corrupt and I think you know that.

In a similar fashion, the courts have foolishly expunged Muad'Dib's trials from their records on two occasions too. That the courts do such things, does not alter the truth. The courts are part of the problem here, not the solution to it. Don't bother telling me it does not go on. Plainly it does.

None of this is trivial. My purpose in writing to you like this is twofold. First, you initiated contact with me and asked me questions, to which I have tried to respond as helpfully as I can. Second, I want to ultimately get you to take possession of the most valuable intellectual property on the planet and hopefully read and digest its contents. Whether you do that of course, is entirely a private matter for you.

I hope that helps explain where I am coming from.

Peace be with you.

Tony
