Dear Richard,

Good morning and good wishes.

I don't know if you do special requests on your Big Radio show on Sundays, but if you do, and if you are intending to give Seven another mention this week, and by extension me, would you please consider playing Rikki Don't Lose That Number for me by Steely Dan. Their lyrics seem quite apt in the circumstances.

The context of the request to you refers to the importance of the links I have given to you in previous emails to the vitally important JAHTRUTH website.

Regards
