

THE WORDING OF AN EMAIL TO NICOLA STURGEON

Dear Nicola Sturgeon,

Good afternoon and good wishes.

Our names are Richard McFarlane and Stephen Crielly. We write with reference to Mr. Alan Turnbull's recent opinion regarding the petition of the Scottish Parliamentary Corporate Body, and Christ's second Affidavit of Truth.

We wish to alert you to two critically important and astonishing articles, which were publicly released today, and are certain to have a huge bearing on Scotland's struggle for Independence.

We urge you to familiarise yourself with the monumental significance of the details within these two articles. We cannot stress that enough.

ARTICLE ONE - THE KING OF SCOTLAND

ARTICLE TWO - WHO WILL ROUSE THE SCOTS UP? THE KING OF SCOTLAND?

Should you wish to discuss these details further, possibly with a view to meeting personally Christ in His Second Coming, then please let us know via email in the first instance.
