Dear James,

Good afternoon again from Ireland.

I hope this finds you well, in good spirit and having a good day.

Seven days have elapsed since I last wrote to you in an email about the unjust judge and persistent widow, and given I have no acknowledgement, and JAH has had no contact from you either, I thought I'd provide a timely reminder of what urgently needs to be done.

In that interim period since I wrote, the 28th anniversary date of Hillsborough has passed by, where some of the families of the 96 gathered together for a private service in the Anglican Cathedral, initiated by your successor, Paul Bayes, and the Archbishop of Liverpool, Malcolm McMahon, in liaison with the Mayor Joe Anderson.

The traditional Good Friday/Easter Sunday rituals have passed by too, and Christ, here in His Second Coming, would like to help put you straight with that.

Four years ago at Anfield, Bill Kenwright, of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat fame, spoke at the 24th memorial service at some length about Margaret, one of the mums of the 96. Margaret just so happens to also be one of your Persistent and Prayerful widows. You may recall that Bill Kenwright preceded his speech with a reading about steadfastness taken from Philippians 4.

Bill Kenwright's Full Speech

Days after this event, you will probably recall that an equally high profile and steadfast mum, Anne Williams, sadly passed away.

Deliberately, I mention Bill Kenwright, not with reference to his chairperson duties of the blues, but rather with reference to Joseph's Coat of Many Colours. That is because that Coat is infinitely more important than either of the red and blue football colours of the city's two main soccer clubs. The booklet below, relates to the connection with the City of Sheffield, and thus the Hillsborough Disaster, in a deeply profound and Biblically prophetic way. It relates to what The Lord is wanting you personally to do, without any further procrastination.

Besides yourself, the Persistent Widow, Margaret was given a gong too, as was Trevor Hicks.

If you have actually watched The Hillsborough Ripple Effect Film, and we hope you have, you ought to have realised by now that the gongs from the queen and her cronies are obviously intended to bring closure, prematurely, before the establishment get found-out. We are disappointed that you have not reacted favourably to my last email and returned your gong, by way of a perfectly timed protest on the anniversary, as the job is not yet finished.

In a last effort to help, I want to make one last suggestion.

If you are not yet willing to contact JAH directly yourself, as I implored you to do, seven days ago, would you be prepared instead, in principle, to meet JAH face-to-face, please? He would want you to read/study "The Way home or face The Fire" - <http://thewayhomeorfacethefire.net> - as a prerequisite before any meeting.

Conceivably, that could be in Liverpool, York or Sheffield. If the meeting were in Liverpool for instance, perhaps, another one of your Persistent Widows, namely Anne Burkett, might like to join in, for exploratory discussions. We have not broached the subject with Anne, yet, however.

JAH and I have an idea for bringing swift and real healing and closure for the families, and we would like to share that idea with you, and one of the persistent widows of our choice, who previously made us feel so welcome in her home.

Please would you give my second request your consideration.

A reply from you, of one sort or another, would be greatly appreciated.

Peace be within you and upon you.

Tony Farrell
