Hiya Richard,

Thank you for your thoughts.

How would I describe myself?

I would describe myself as a disciple of JAH, who is the Second Coming of Christ. Please make no mistake about that. In context, while I am willing to concede that I might be wrong with my inferences about Judge Pumfrey's death for instance, I know I am right about JAH.

As I think I said in my previous email to you, I am at peace. I am hopping mad with no-one, least of all Ms. Seven, and I don't accept that she has conned me. Anyway, why get angry, what good does it serve? As was stated on my original email to David Crompton, a most convivial Chief Constable, which you mentioned you stumbled upon, it will ultimately be for the Lord to administer justice, not Mr. Farrell or even Mr. Richard J Hannah.

Are you hopping-mad with Ms. Seven? I can understand why she gets hopping-mad at the mere sound of your name, but nevertheless, it makes me sad when I see her not at peace with herself in so doing. By nature she is a happy individual who likes to be fair and treat people nicely.

Here's what JAH hates.

Proverbs 6

16 These six things doth the Lord hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

All for now. It's tea-time.

Tony
